

Land of Enchantment Guides at the Bar X Bar Ranch Half & Full Day Guided Fly Fishing Trips for Groups

The Bar X Bar Ranch offers anglers a wild and private fishing location at the southern tip of the Rockies, within less than an hour drive from the plaza in Santa Fe. Located east of the city surrounded by the Santa Fe National Forest, this 5,000 acre private ranch has incredible fishing in a beautiful high alpine setting, with lots of wildlife to be seen as an added bonus. There are five lakes situated throughout the length of the 600 acre Manzanares Valley. The lakes are full of large, hungry trout that are easy to catch. Because these lakes are in the valley's meadows, both the fishing and access is easy, making the Bar X Bar Ranch a great destination for both novice and skilled anglers. This is the perfect spot for a group to get out into wild and rural New Mexico countryside, without having to drive off the end of the map. A fly fishing trip at the Bar X Bar ranch with Land of Enchantment Guides - what a wonderful way to relax, have some fun and catch some beautiful trout!

Land of Enchantment Guides does both half-day and full day trips at the Bar X Bar Ranch. Half-day trips are typically 6 to 7± hours overall time; departing from and returning to Santa Fe. Full day trips are typically 8 to 9± hours overall time; departing from and returning to Santa Fe. "Tony and I wanted to let you know how much we enjoyed our day with your guides. They were very patient with us and we learned a great deal about fly fishing. Even better was that we caught a lot of fish! I am so pleased that you were recommended through our resort. We couldn't have asked for a better experience. My husband thought the setting at the Bar X Bar Ranch was absolutely perfect. Thank you again."
